

Harrison Bergeron

Across

7. confused amazement or fear
 8. To shrink or flinch involuntarily, especially in pain
 9. To crouch down in fear
 10. lead weights used in some kinds of windows to keep them from falling shut when raised

Down

1. An electronic device for broadcasting radio signals
 2. A hammer with a head having one flat side and one round side
 3. Alert Attention, Watchfulness
 4. To counteract or cancel the affect of
 5. To match the timing to
 6. Tiny lead pellets made to be loaded in shotgun shells

Word Bank

- |             |                  |               |
|-------------|------------------|---------------|
| Transmitter | cower            | Neutralize    |
| Synchronize | Sashweights      | Bird Shot     |
| Vigilance   | Ball Peen Hammer | Consternation |
| Wince       |                  |               |