

Name: _____

Date: _____

Having a Captain Cook at Australian History

Across

5. Who was he apologising to?
 7. What prime minister said 'Sorry'
 8. In 1972 Gough Whitlam adopted the policy of 'self-determination' for Indigenous communities. This policy Recognised that Aboriginal people had a right to be involved in decision making about their own.....?
 9. Aboriginal people have inhabitedfor at least 60,000 years and probably longer as archaeological evidence continues to be discovered
 10. In 1967 a referendum occurred and Australians voted overwhelmingly to amend the constitution to include Aboriginal people in the

Down

1. Between 1910-1970, many Indigenous children were forcibly removed from their families as a result of various government policies. The generations of children removed under these policies became known as the The policies of child removal left a legacy of trauma and loss that continues to affect Indigenous communities, families and individuals.
 2. In 1992 Eddie..... won a land mark case that refuted the concept of Terra Nullius
 3. When Captain Cook claimed possession of Australia he claimed..... which means 'nobody's land'
 4. In 1838 colonial settlers massacred 28 Aboriginal men, women and near Myall Creek Station, NSW. The massacre is one of many that occurred and is a harrowing reminder of Australia's colonial violence and one of the rare cases where killers were tried and hanged.
 6. Australia's history since the arrival of British settlers helps explain the great sense ofand the strong sense of common historical experience which Aboriginal people share today.