

Health Basics

Across

2. person who will receive benefits under the contract if a loss occurs

3. table showing the mathematical probability of a loss due to a sickness or injury

5. the initial amount payable by the insured before the insurance benefits apply

10. prior medical conditions for which the applicant has received, or should have received, medical advice or treatment within a specified period before the effective date of a policy

11. if a premium is paid at the time of application the producer will provide the owner with a

12. illness that occurs after probationary period

13. a stated dollar amount that applies per claim in addition to any other cost-sharing

14. person applying for insurance coverage

Down

1. changes to the application and incomplete applications

4. Unintended Event resulting in injury

6. provided to prospective buyer at the time of application or policy delivery

7. the cost sharing between the insurer and the insured

8. initial step of total process of insuring a health risk

9. professional liability insurance covering the liability of an agent