

Name: _____

Health Unit 3

Across

1. Woman's period, the unfertilized egg and the inner lining of the uterus are shed from body.
2. Passageway for sperm to travel.
4. A monthly series of changes that take place in the female reproductive organ.
6. Where sperm are stored.
11. Sperm mixed with other fluids.
14. Allows urine and semen to travel through.
15. The name for the embryo after it takes on a human appearance (after about 2 months of pregnancy).

18. An abnormality (physically, mentally, etc.) that is present at birth and may be inherited (can be caused by actions like smoking).
  19. The process in which a mature egg is released from the ovary.
  21. A physician who specializes in the care of a pregnant woman.
- ## Down
3. Male sex organ, used for reproduction and urination.
  5. The process in which two cells (an egg and a sperm) join together to grow into a baby.
  7. The period of time between conception and birth.

8. Where the egg will travel through. Fertilization take place here.
9. Organ that produces sperm and testosterone.
10. Organ that holds the fertilized egg. It's where the baby will develop (the womb).
12. Where eggs are produced and stored.
13. Muscular tube that connects the uterus to the outside of the body.
16. What a baby is called after the first 8 weeks since fertilization.
17. The narrow passage forming the lower end of the uterus.
20. Another word for the egg (also called ovum).