

Health and social care

Across

4. The new skills and capabilities an infant acquires

8. A combination of self-image and self-esteem.

10. a period of physical change caused by hormonal changes in the body.

11. set of principles by which people lead their lives.

12. The changes in size and mass of the infant

13. a dramatic period of self-doubt caused by the passing of youth and the move into later adulthood.

Down

1. Lynne is 15, what life stage is she in?

2. Grow closer and develop emotional ties.

3. the feeling of loss and sadness when one or more children leave the family home.

5. How you value yourself

6. How you see yourself

7. the natural and permanent stopping of menstruation (periods), occurring usually between the ages of 45 and 55.

9. Various brain disorders that have in common a loss of brain function that is usually progressive and eventually severe.