

Name: _____

Date: _____

Health care

Across

3. Subscription medical less restricted than hmo

4. Amount to be paid for an insurance policy

6. A term used in managed care for an approved referral

12. Pays the cost of all or part of the insured person's hospital room and board and specific hospital services

13. An insurance term used when a primary care provider wants to send a patient to a specialist

14. The sum of money paid at the time of medical service

15. A specified amount of money that the insured must pay before an insurance company will pay a claim

16. Protecting rights - gap insurance for people between jobs

Down

1. Protects a person in the event of a certain type of accident, such as an airplane crash

2. A federal system of health insurance for those requiring financial assistance

5. Government pays for all health cost

7. Having inadequate insurance coverage

8. Subscribers pay a predetermined fee in return for a range of medical services

9. A person who helps in identifying or preventing or treating illness or disability

10. Provision frequently found in medical insurance policies whereby the policy holder and the insurance company shares the cost of covered losses in a specified ratio

11. Pays expenses involved in the care of the teeth and gums