

Heating Terminology and Equipment

Across

2. Metal spoon used for scooping powders
 3. The wire mat which beakers sit on when heated.
 7. Another name for the purpose of an experiment.
 8. A 3 legged stand which is used to heat objects over a Bunsen burner.
 10. The name of the burner used for heating objects.
 12. A glass rod that measures temperature.

14. Another name for the chimney of the Bunsen burner.

15. The rotating metal tube used to open the holes on a Bunsen burner.
 17. A scientific prediction made prior to an experiment.

Down

1. The colour of the heating flame.
 4. A long glass cylinder used to hold and heat chemicals.
 5. The flat tile like mat the sits under the Bunsen burner.

6. An open glass jar that is used for holding and pouring liquid.

9. Used to ignite the flame.

11. Another name for the procedure during an experiment.

13. The colour of the safety flame.

16. A wooden holding tray for test tubes.