

High School and Career Planning Skills

Across

- 3. A course or program that teaches job skills.
6. The fee that colleges charge to take their classes.
9. Unit of measurement that schools use to determine whether students are progressing toward graduation.
11. A certificate of completion awarded to a person after completing a program of study in a particular area, usually lasting two years.

- 12. A document stating that a person has passed a five-part test in the areas of writing, social studies, science, reading, and math.
14. Learning on the job.

Down

- 1. A program of study beyond a bachelor's degree.
2. Any education or training following high school.
4. A program in which a person learns to do certain job by working with a skilled worker.
5. A course that is required before another course can be taken.

- 7. A certificate of completion awarded to a person after successfully completing a required set of college courses in both general and specific areas.
8. Methods of paying for education/training, such as grants, scholarships, etc.
10. A course that is not required but can be chosen by students according to their interest.
13. A temporary paid or unpaid job position that involves direct work experience in a work field.