High school and career word search

Across

3. someone who purchases a good or service with the intent to use it

6. business owned by many people but treated by the law as though it were owned by one person

7. any education or training following high school

12. unit of measurement that schools use to determine whether students are progressing toward graduation

15. methods of paying for education/training, such as grants, scholarships, etc.

17. continuing for a long period of time to accomplish a task

18. a person who owns stock in a company

20. a course that is not required but can be chosen by students according to their interests

21. someone who creates a good or service

22. the fee that colleges charge to take their classes

23. learning on the job

24. a description of the goals of a business and how it will operate

25. a person who organizes, manages, and assumes the risk of a business

26. business owned by one person

27. a program in which a person learns to do a certain job by working with a skilled worker

Down

1. when two or more companies rival for consumer dollars

2. a temporary paid or unpaid position that involves direct work experience in a career field

4. economic rules that influence consumer buying decisions

5. a course that is required before another course

8. a certificate of completion awarded to a person after completing a program of study in a particular area, usually lasting two years

9. a share of the ownership in a company

10. a course or program that teaches job skills

11. a document stating that a person has passed a five-part test in the areas of writing, social studies, science, reading, and math

13. business that two or more people own and operate

14. a program of study beyond a bachelor's degree

16. possibility of loss

19. a certificate of completion awarded to a person after successfully completing a required set of college courses in both general and specific areas