

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hinduism Crossword

Across

4. On September 25th, 1995, statues of this diety mysteriously drank the milk Hindus fed to it all across the world.

7. A pointless life in an imperfect physical world.

8. Part of the Holy Trinity; is associated with the arts.

9. This is believed to be a sacred sound; it is told to contain the essence of Brahman when enchanted.

11. A great yogi; has long hair that holds the water of the Ganges River.

14. Offering to the gods particular articles such as bells at your home shrine.

15. Very similar to the Holy Trinity, but is made up of three gods, one of them being Vishnu.

16. When a Hindu has lived a perfect life. There is no rebirth and your atman is united with Brahman.

Down

1. The word that represents big moments in a Hindu life, such as a child's first outing.

2. A milestone in Hinduism, that's a part of dharma. This gives your family economical stability.

3. A significant figure in Hinduism. Fought for minority groups to be recognized in the caste system.

5. A system that a Hindu hopes to move through after their previous life, to achieve moksha.

6. The moral duty in your certain stage of life.

10. The process of finding your inner soul and Brahman.

12. Occurs in March. Hindu's create a huge bonfire, representing the burning of evil.

13. A spiritual leader that guides a person to moksha.