

Hip dislocation

Across

2. In a hip dislocation, the femur pops out of the _____ (socket in the pelvis)
5. If there is numbness in the foot and ankle area, what can we assume there is damage to?
7. Usually the injured leg is _____ than the uninjured leg
9. To best prevent a hip dislocation, strengthening the _____ around the hip is required

11. _____ supply can be compromised

12. rarely occurs in _____
13. A sign is a flexed, adducted, and _____ rotated hip
- ## Down
1. Poor blood flow to the hip due to a hip dislocation can lead to avascular _____
3. Result of traumatic force directed along the long axis of the _____

4. Palpation is done on the _____ (two words)

6. Full recovery typically lasts _____ months
8. What must a physician immediately do?
10. What procedure may be needed to put the joint back to place?