

History Crossword

Across

2. To make an important statement or announcement is called a _____
4. A policy of extending a country's power through military force is called ...
8. An experienced canoeist that brought fur to countries.
9. Another way of saying a country belongs to you is saying that you have _____ to a country

10. An agreement paper between two countries is called a ...

12. Groups of indigenous peoples from Canada are called ...

14. An area under the entire or partial political control of another country.

15. All wars have a massive _____ on a country.

Down

1. First Nations, Metis and Inuit are all _____ peoples.

3. Someone who leaves their country and moves to a new one

5. A governmental division, usually an area that is under the command of a state.

6. An early French settler in Canada is called a ...

7. Canada is a _____ country

11. What was the loyalest impact on British North America?

13. An agreement between two countries is called an ...

Word Bank

treaty	Immigrant	habitant	Impact	territory
First Nations	imperialism	Migration	multicultural	proclamation alliance	colony	claims	voyageur	Indigenous