

History Crossword Puzzle- Mia Hollander

Across

1. Some propaganda was made to convey the message that Americans needed to give up luxuries and give our spare time in an effort to win the war.
4. On D-Day , the 5 beaches, two of which were code named Utah and Omaha were located where?
6. Hitler wanted _____ supremacy in Germany.
8. This moved Japanese Americans to military zones. They were forced to leave their homes, quit their jobs, close their businesses, and move to the desert.
9. This day marks when the Allies start to push Germany back. A turning point in the war.

10. The Treaty of _____ that followed WWI made Germans mad because they felt it was not fair that they must accept responsibility for the war.

Down

2. Belief that the government should have complete and total control
3. _____ attacked Pearl Harbor
5. The crash of our _____ followed by the weak banking system began the cycle of the Great Depression
7. FDR's programs which were implemented to solve the problems of the Great Depression through relief, reform, and recovery.