

Name: _____

Date: _____

History

Across

- 4. He was an American stevedore. He was of African American descent. He was also the first to be killed in the Boston Massacre.
- 6. Also known as the Siege of _____. It ended on October 19, 1781. It was an easy victory for the colonists. The British surrendered.
- 8. Series of measures passed by the Parliament in 1767 that taxed goods imported to the American colonies. It was an abuse of power. The colonists were not happy.
- 9. This battle marked the climax of the campaign. It gave a decisive victory to the Americans over the British in the American Revolutionary War. It was a crucial victory.
- 10. A military encampment for the continental army's main body. It was commanded by George Washington. In September 1777, British Forces captured Philadelphia.
- 11. American colonists who remained loyal to Britain. Often called Tories or Royalists. They were opposed by the Patriots.

Down

- 1. This was the first military engagement. This battle was known for the shot heard 'round the world. Paul Revere notified everyone about this.
- 2. This was a political protest that occurred on December 16, 1773 in Boston. The Americans were angry about England's "taxation without representation". So they dumped 342 chests of British tea into the harbor.
- 3. It was signed in Paris by the representatives of King George III. It set the boundaries between the British and North America. It also included finishing rights.
- 5. It was a small, but pivotal battle. Took place right after Christmas on December 26, 1776. This was a victory for the colonists.
- 7. Pamphlet written by Thomas Paine. It advocates independence from Great Britain. This pamphlet was very famous.