

Name: _____

Date: _____

History project

Across

2. In response to the intolerance acts, 12 of the 13 colonies met in Philadelphia from September-October, 1774, one of the main results of this was the creation of the association calling for a boycott of British goods
3. Pontiac's war convinced the British to close lands west of Appalachians
5. Required tax stamps on many ideas and documents including playing cards newspapers and marriage licenses
8. This major victory for the colonists resulted in King George 3rd proclaiming the colonists in rebellion and showed that the colonists were capable of victory
9. A committee of continental congress, headed by Thomas Jefferson, drew up the Declaration of Independence

10. This act raised revenue by increasing duties on sugar imported from the west Indies

11. Known as The shot heard around the world; Paul Revere and William Dawes warned colonists that "the British are coming"

12. To assist the failing British East India company, the company was given a monopoly to trade tea in America. The colonists did not like this

13. The colonists and British soldiers openly clashed in Boston; This event was used as an example of British cruelty despite questions about how it actually occurred.

14. Punishment for the Boston tea party

Down

1. All 13 colonies were represented at this meeting in Philadelphia beginning of May. The colonists still hoped that their grievances would be met by the King George 3rd. George Washington was named head of continental army
4. Colonists disguised as Indians dumped tea overboard from three ships in Boston harbor
6. Banned paper bills
7. Colonists had to provide housing to British soldiers