

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hospice Care

Across

- 3. What should the nurse encourage patients to eat in order to reduce malnutrition?
- 6. what is the most dreaded symptom that a dying patient experiences?
- 7. What type of pain arises from the musculoskeletal system and is described as aching, stabbing or throbbing?
- 9. A disease in an advanced stage with no known cure and poor prognosis

- 11. This type of pain is described as tingling, burning or shooting?
- 12. What type of care emphasizes pain control, symptom relief, psychological and spiritual care?

Down

- 1. What medication can the nurse administer 30 minutes prior to a meal or before chemotherapy to reduce nausea?
- 2. Care that emphasizes support to patients with a terminal illness.

- 4. This type of pain originates from the internal organs and is often described as cramping, pressure, dull or squeezing?
- 5. what type of care is aggressive and aimed at improving the disease and prolonging life?
- 8. malnutrition marked by weakness and emaciation
- 10. Hospice care is generally provided to patients who have less than ____ months to live?