

How well do you know your customs?

Across

- 5. act whereby a person indicates the wish to place goods under a given customs procedure (export, import or special customs procedure); a document that supports such an act
- 6. to bring in (merchandise, commodities, services etc.) from a foreign country for use, sale, processing, reexport, or services
- 7. system which classifies goods, gives codes to the goods as so classified, specifies the rate of import duty applicable and contains rules for determining the amount of import duty applicable
- 9. tax imposed on imports and sometimes on exports of goods

- 10. 'economic nationality' of goods traded in commerce

Down

- 1. document prepared by the carrier of a shipment of goods (by sea or by air) that contains details of the shipment, route, and charges
- 2. to sell merchandise, commodities, services, etc. to a foreign country
- 3. permission from customs authorities to use customs special procedures
- 4. name of customs valuation method no.4
- 8. measure that enables an importer to pay less (and, in some cases, no) tax or duty on an import