

Name: _____

Date: _____

Human Growth and Development

Across

4. Area of development linked to health and growth

9. Area of development that shows an awareness, understanding and ability to cope with emotions

10. Type of thinking used by infants who can only focus on their own feelings.

11. This can be increased or lowered and involves how you and others feel about you

13. What is the abbreviation for the 4 areas of development?

14. Name the physical skill associated with large muscle movements, such as walking.

15. Holding a rattle, painting with a brush and playing the guitar are all examples of what?

Down

1. The ability to make decisions for yourself.

2. The feeling of being loved, cared for and financially stable.

3. The ability to think in a creative way, whilst also taking the feelings of others into consideration.

5. A factor that involves a person you may be inspired by or look up to.

6. Area of development that includes thinking, speaking and memory

7. The chemicals released during the adolescent life stage, resulting in physical and emotional changes are called...

8. A feeling of being happy about your feelings and environment

12. Area of development linked to friendships and relationships