

Human Impact

Across

5. Plants or animals that have been introduced into a place where they are not native
7. Increase of the earth's average temperature is called?
9. Low crop yield and nutrient-deficient land are caused by?
10. caused by the release of sulfur dioxides and nitrogen oxides into the atmosphere

11. Any harmful material that can enter the biosphere through land, water or air is called?
12. The burning of fossil fuels has resulted in?
13. Any factor that halts the growth of population
14. Large amounts of water taken from a lake are used to cool machinery. That water is dumped back into the lake. This is called?

Down

1. Resources that once used, they are gone
2. Resources that are used more than once
3. Organisms killed for personal gain
4. A natural predator is used to control pests
6. Release of toxins into the atmosphere, making it less fit for living organisms
8. technique used to help reduce erosion by planting crops to cover the field