

Human Reproductive System

Across

- 3. Pregnancy tests detect the hormone human _____ gonadotropin.
- 7. the process when one sperm fuses with the ovum
- 9. a mixture of fluid produced by the male sex glands and sperm
- 10. the male sex cell
- 15. the tube that conducts sperm from the testes to the urethra
- 16. After 8 weeks development, the embryo is known as the _____.
- 17. A hollow ball of many cells
- 18. It contains enzymes to break down part of the egg membrane to enter the ovum
- 21. Produces sperm and male hormones
- 22. Produces mature eggs and female sex hormones

- 23. One of two female sex hormones

- 25. male sex hormone
- 26. where sperm are stored temporarily, found on the back of the testis

Down

- 1. protects and holds the testes outside the body to maintain a lower temperature for sperm development.
- 2. When the zygote arrives in the uterus, it will _____ in the endometrial lining.
- 4. the site where important substances and waste materials are transferred between the fetus and the mother
- 5. The older term for the uterus
- 6. the process of sloughing off the inner lining of the uterus, once monthly
- 8. Largest of the glands that produce semen, can be felt through the anterior rectal wall

- 11. The _____ sac is a fluid-filled bag that protects and supports the fetus during development.
- 12. Each sperm has this structure that whips back and forth to move them forward
- 13. The scientific term for pregnancy is _____ (hint: starts with a "g")
- 14. One of two female sex hormones
- 19. the release of the secondary oocyte from the ovary
- 20. delivers sperm into the vagina of the female during ejaculation
- 24. This part of the uterus must dilate to 10 cm before the child can be delivered.