

Human Rights

Across

- 2. What is an example of increased influence of non-state actors and helped free over 10,000 human rights prisoners.
- 4. WWII and the Cold War changed impacts of globalization because WWII human rights violations did not stop at _____.
- 6. The United Nations of Human Rights council was in charge of _____ human rights.
- 9. One example of factor in the expansion and commitment to human rights is global _____ aimed at protecting human rights.
- 13. The right of a person to be brought before a judge or a court to determine imprisonment.
- 14. _____ are controlled by roles they have in society based on their skills, rights, and individual responsibilities.
- 15. Group that was founded to treat wounded warriors?
- 16. peacemaking
- 19. Fighting _____ increased arrests and surveillance capabilities and securities.

- 21. During the war, the Japanese military would use "comfort woman" as _____ slaves.
 - 22. It was too expensive to establish tribunes in third world countries which was a _____.
 - 23. An _____ is something you have to do.
 - 24. This is done by regional groups like the UN to help or control another country.
 - 25. Who was not successful implementing human rights?
 - 26. Supporters in promoting _____ can help bring stability, prosperity, and prevent war.
 - 28. Under specific circumstances, it could endanger the rights of others.
- Down
- 1. An example of acceptance of interdependence of rights is the Myanmar government genocidal crackdown caused many people to flee. _____ fleeing to Bangladesh have caused a crisis there.
 - 3. First human rights NGO.
 - 5. When people believe that rights can never be violated and must be followed.

- 7. The united States has freedom of speech, but not every place in the world has this right. This is an example of _____.
- 8. What is believed to belong justifiably to everybody?
- 10. A reason for _____ is to attempt to change the behavior of a country to attempts at regime change. like ending humans rights violations.
- 11. Market base economies _____ with respect to human rights.
- 12. Community rights are what is good for the community, but not what is good for _____, that is if you are the least powerful, your are suppressed by elites.
- 17. The four freedoms are: freedom of speech and expression, freedom from economic hardship, freedom from fear, and freedom of _____.
- 18. peacemaking
- 20. Rights that humans everywhere are entitled to simply because they are human.
- 27. A _____ is something you can do. They are corresponding obligations.