

Humanities

Across

- 3. set of ideas or beliefs which sets a basis of political system within a nation.
7. councils originally elected by workers or peasants
9. an agreement made formally between two or more sovereign states or countries to undertake course of actions
11. an event or events that over time leads to a reaction
12. a war between two opposing groups within the one country

13. the economic system under which industries are owned privately

15. where a powerful country controls several less powerful countries

Down

- 1. excessive influence of military values and post-war ideas
2. an event that creates an immediate reaction
4. a serious disagreement or argument between two or more people

5. a government system in which the state controls the economy to ensure collective ownership by the people

6. having interest, pride and loyalty in one's nation

8. a person who buys or sells stocks on behalf of someone

10. an economic system in which the government favours the nation over the citizens(people living there).

14. the execution of a person without authority or justice of trial