

Humerus/AC Joints

Across

3. AP Humerus: epicondyles are _____ with the IR
 4. AP AC Joints: shoulders lie in the same _____ plane
 8. Transthoracic: used when _____ exists
 10. A humeral fracture that most often occur among the elderly is located...
 11. A fracture may affect the blood supply and/or the _____.

12. AP AC Joints: images taken without _____ and then with _____ (word is the same for both blanks)
 13. Lateral Humerus: _____ the elbow 90 degrees
 14. AP & Lateral Humerus: CR is _____ to the mid portion of the humerus
 15. Most humeral fractures are _____.

Down

1. AP Axial AC Joints: CR is directed how, with the degree of 15?
 2. AP Axial AC Joints: CR is directed toward the _____ process
 5. A destructive bone disease common in the humerus is called...
 6. AP Humerus: what is shown in profile?
 7. Transthoracic: the unaffected clavicle and humerus will be projected _____ the shoulder closest to the IR
 9. How many grades are there for an AC joint injury?