

Name: _____

Date: _____

IDITAROD

Across

- 1. Small pieces of ivory used by Eskimos to fasten tug lines to harnesses
- 3. All terrain vehicle
- 6. Alcohol based fuel used by mushers in their cook stoves on the trail
- 8. Any northern type dog
- 9. The finish line in Nome
- 12. Rope attached to the sled which is used to tie the sled to a tree or other object.

- 14. Pushing the sled with one foot while the other remains on the runner
- 15. Line that connects dog's harness to the tow line.

- 5. Metal or wooden post driven into the ground to which dog is tied
- 7. Thin strips of wood which make up the bottom of a wooden sled basket. Note: Toboggan sleds have a sheet of plastic as the bottom for their basket
- 10. Command for right turn
- 11. Any place in the lower 48 state
- 13. Command for left turn

Down

- 2. Alaska's State motto. Alaska was the last frontier in the United States
- 4. A long chain with shorter pieces of chain extending from it. Used to stake out a team when stakes aren't available

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|---------------|-------------|-------------|----------|----------|
| Last Frontier | Slats | Toggles | Stake | Husky |
| Heet | Snub Line | Buried Arch | Haw | Tug Line |
| Outside | Picket Line | ATV | Pedaling | Gee |