

INRE209 Homework 2

Across

1. ... movement; it was established by the Bandung Conference in 1958
 4. According to Craig Murphy, there is a ... bloc, consists of Atlantic countries
 5. The school of thought, which considers all the human beings as parts of a larger community, regardless of different political communities and cultures
 10. Integral of both soft and hard power; power
 13. ... theories are based on modern-traditional dichotomy
 15. He deeply inspired economic structuralist theories in IR
 16. One of the theories of imperialism was created by V. I. ...

17. Characteristic of international system

18. Man's control over the minds and actions of other men

19. Economic structuralists are interested in the ... transformation of the world system

20. National bourgeoisie, allied with foreign capitalists

Down

2. Author of "History of the Peloponnesian War"

3. The diffusion and extension of social, political, economic processes in between and beyond the sovereign jurisdictional boundaries of nation-states

6. Immanuel ...; Prussian philosopher, who inspired democratic peace theory

7. According to Keohane, persistent and connected sets of that prescribe behavioral roles, constrain activity, and shape expectations

8. According to economic structuralists, in order to understand the global context, one should start from the ... world-system

9. Unitary and purposive political entities which are primary actors of IR

11. According to Keohane, global ... consists of "networks among agents and norms that are widely accepted among agents"

12. Clausewitz's book about the war

14. Branch of neorealism asserting that states always try to maximize their power positions