IT&S Cyber Security Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. Always _____your computer when you leave your desk

6. Do not leave your laptop or computer _____

7. A _____ is a hardware of a software that helps keep hackers from using your computer and it watches for outside attempts to access your system and blocks communication that you don't permit

9. Choose a password that is easy for you _____ but hard for you someone to guess.

11. Never share your _____ with another person

12. Email scam or attempt to trick you into giving your password or personal information

14. A software that is designed and destroy computer viruses

15. The state of being free from danger and threat

16. _____ is a software that gathers computer user information and transmits it to the creator of the software without the explicit knowledge or informed consent of the user

Down

1. Also known as malicious software any; any program or file that is harmful to a computer user

2. A collection of information that is organized so that it can easily be accessed, managed and updated
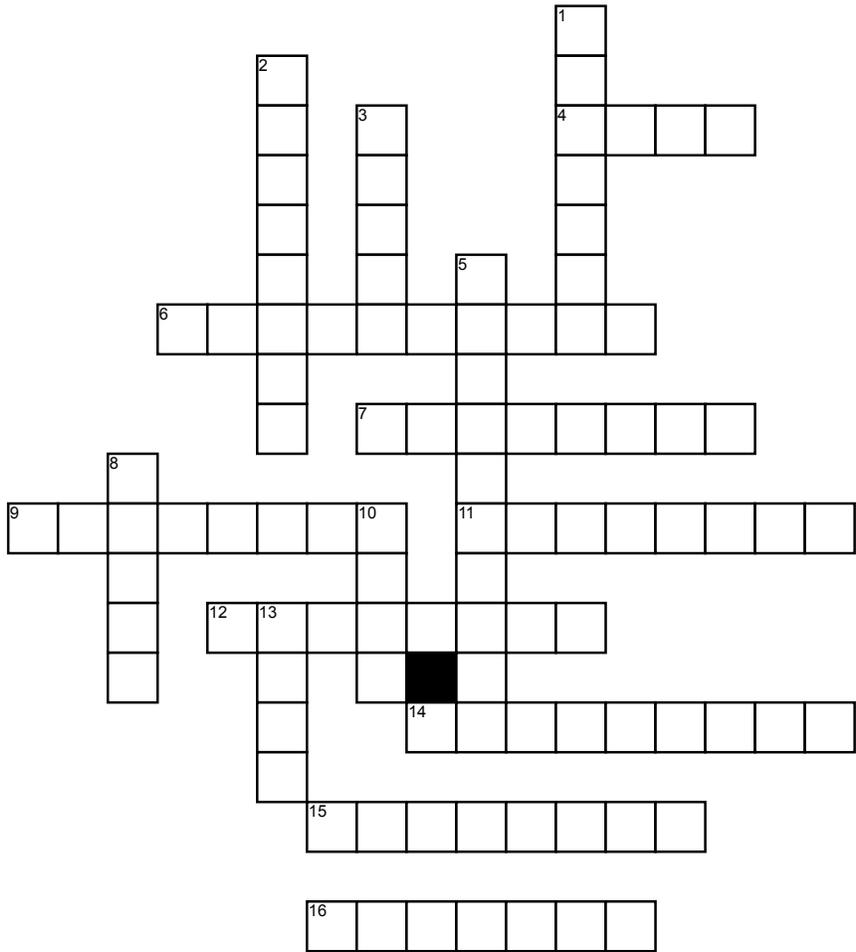

3. Passwords should should always be at least this many characters long.

5. Applied to data to protect it from unauthorized use in case of theft or loss.

8. To protect personal information, avoid sending it via

10. A _____ assessment is the process by which risks are identified and the impact of those risks determined

13. A _____ is often an email that gets mailed in chain letter fashion describing some devasting. highly unlikely type of virus.