

Ian Winham's Crossword

Across

2. How many people live in the village of "The Lottery"
5. The author is both of these in the story "The Things They Carried"
11. The story "The Things They Carried" is written in this tense
13. The author in "Good People" he uses a different tense to tell this story
15. In "Good People" the author is able to portray this character as having internal conflict
17. Who's point of view is used in "The Red Convertible"?
18. In the short story "A Small, Good Thing" how do the characters' roles change when this person dies?
19. Bobbie Ann Mason in her writing uses a lot of _____ to paint an image for you
20. In "Hills Like White Elephants" where does this story take place?
23. The author in the story "Good People" uses this as a way to create conflict
24. During the story "The Red Convertible" Lyman would _____ the car for Henry to _____.

25. "Shiloh" is told from this person's point of view _____

27. The author in "Hills Like White Elephants" uses this form of writing to give us access to information
28. Who is given all of the attention in the short story "The Necklace"?
29. In the story "The Things They Carried" this story is being told from this time period _____
30. In the short story "Hills Like White Elephants" do they all speak in one language or do they use different languages? Kind and do all characters understand the languages?

Down

1. The author in "A Small, Good Thing" portrays this person as a suspect in the death of Scotty. Who is the author framing?
3. The author for the short story "Bullet In the Brain" uses this style of writing
4. When Lyman pushed the car into the river what did that symbolize between him and Henry?
6. "The Things They Carried" is written from this person's Point of View

7. In the short story "Bullet In the Brain" the author uses this point of view to tell the story.

8. Establishes narrative element in advance of impacting the plot
9. Even though in "The Red Convertible" both brothers are narrating who has the main Point of View?
10. In the short story "The Red Convertible" what is the main symbol of the story?
12. In the short story "The Lottery" what day does the lottery take place?
14. During what time period does "The Red Convertible" take place?
16. In the short story "The Red Convertible" how are the two people telling the story related?
21. One of the main characters in "The Red Convertible" appears to have this traumatic condition
22. In the short story "The Necklace" the story is written in _____ form
26. In the short story "Hills Like White Elephants" the author uses the term operations as an analogy for _____