

Name: _____

Date: _____

Immanuel Kant

Across

4. A life beyond, in which we can achieve the supreme good.
6. Kant can be described as a _____ dreamer, because he encouraged all people to act out of respect for the other.
8. From the Greek word "deon" meaning duty.
9. For Kant, duty is determined by a principle according to which we act.
10. The will to do our duty for no other reason than that it is our duty.

Down

1. Moves beyond scientific and empirical knowledge to the moral dimension guiding human behaviour (what we "ought" to do).
2. We come to know how the laws of nature, the laws of cause/effect, govern human behaviour (what people "actually" do).
3. His _____ is to be discovered in private life, in the inner conviction and autonomy of the individual.
5. Kant proposes the existence of _____ to allow us to achieve the supreme good.
7. To have the duty to do something, we must be "able" to do it.

Word Bank

Theoretical Reason	Moral Maxims	God	Freedom
Ethics	Goodwill	Utopian	Immortality
Deontology	Practical Reason		