

Imperialism

Across

1. the theory that individuals, groups, and peoples are subject to the same Darwinian laws of natural selection as plants and animals.
3. the task that white colonizers believed they had to impose their civilization on the black inhabitants of their colonies.
7. a state that is controlled and protected by another.
8. a system of government of one nation by another in which the governed people retain certain administrative, legal, and other powers.
9. a policy of extending a country's power and influence through diplomacy or military force.
10. was originally a private company granted a trade monopoly with the East Indies by Queen Elizabeth I.

Down

2. regulated European colonization and trade in Africa during the New Imperialism period, and coincided with Germany's sudden emergence as an imperial power.
4. a revolt of the sepoy troops in British India (1857–59), resulting in the transfer of the administration of India from the East India Company to the crown.
5. the policy or practice of acquiring full or partial political control over another country, occupying it with settlers, and exploiting it economically.
6. a system of government in which a province is controlled by a central government.