

Imperialism Learning Contract/A2

Across

2. the policy of territorial or economic expansion.

6. journalism that is based upon sensationalism and crude exaggeration

10. an extremely wicked or cruel act, typically one involving physical violence or injury

11. to add, the addition to the to a document

12. the belief that all members of each race possess characteristics or abilities specific to that race, especially so as to distinguish it as inferior or superior to another race or races

13. a policy of remaining apart from the affairs or interests of other groups, especially the political affairs of other countries

Down

1. a country or area in which another country has power to affect developments although it has no formal authority

3. Moral Diplomacy is the system in which support is given only to countries whose moral beliefs are analogous to that of the nation

4. the use of a country's financial power to extend its international influence

5. a state that is controlled and protected by another.

7. (in US history) an African-American cavalry soldier.

8. to extend and influence a country through diplomacy or military force

9. a person who breaks in or can ride unbroken horses.