

Independent Reading Project

Across

3. Luke's friend give him something in which he will now the government secrets and why he cant be free.
4. this is a group of person like Jen's family that has more possibilities that poor persons like our protagonist.
6. There Is a place that he really would like to go that his friend is bored of being there.
7. He help Luke at the end of the history to get An Fake I.D and finally can go to a real school
9. Our protagonist don't really like to call himself a third kid that is why his mother teach him to change it by.

12. The protagonist of the book and also the third child of the Garner's family is called?

13. He is a kid that belongs to a poor family that life in a town in which his father work in a.

14. On the bock it tell us how all the third child are chatting online by the computer and Jen with her friends are preparing for something that would change the world

15. In the story animals are not allowed to have in they houses because is one more mouth to feed.

Down

1. The person in his family that our protagonist really love.

2. in the book adult are not allow to have three children but the peoples that have them by an accident they have to hide because of the people that work for government called.

5. this is what some third children uses to be free and stop hiding but pretending be another person.

8. Is the way third childrens communicate each other.

10. The protagonist's third child friend and also his neighbor is called?

11. this is what he saw through the window and make him be interested to who that belongs.