

India and Gupta Empire

Across

1. all the actions of a persons life that affect his or her fate in the next life is called
4. there were strict social classes called the what system
6. what system did the guptans mathematicians develop based on the number 10
8. the holy book is called the what
12. Hinduism has no one sacred text, nor one single what
16. strong civilizations traded with each other along the ensh
18. what did Buddhist build that were shrines to house the remains of select holy people

19. the Gupta Empire had a strong military, because they were able to form military what with other nations
  20. people who have bad karma are born into a lower level of existence, and born into what
  21. doctors used what type of remedies to treat illnesses, and developed a vaccine against smallpox
  22. Gupta literature consists of fables and folktales written in ehat
  23. to Hindus people, the ultimate goal of existence is to achieve
- Down
2. an age of peace and prosperity is called a what
  3. the golden age of India occurred under the what empire

5. the mass amount of trade led to a strong economy, and what
7. moshka is the union with the what
9. only men were allowed to enroll into universities, which is known as
10. people who live virtuously earn what type of karma
11. the rebirth of the soul into another form is called
13. before stories were written down, how were they remebered
14. what is the religious and moral duties of an indivisual
15. wealth and what were passed along the trade network
17. who were the group of scholars in Chandragupta's court, because he supported both science and art