

Industrial Revolution

Across

- 5. a company or group of people authorized to act as a single entity (legally a person) and recognized as such in law.
- 7. the action or fact of joining or being joined, especially in a political context.
- 8. An economic term that describes the inputs used in the production of goods or services in order to make an economic profit.
- 10. The process of making an area more urban.
- 11. a political theory derived from Karl Marx, advocating class war and leading to a society in which all property is publicly owned and each person works and is paid according to their abilities and needs.

- 12. a political and economic theory of social organization which advocates that the means of production, distribution, and exchange should be owned or regulated by the community as a whole.
- 13. the changes in manufacturing and transportation that began with fewer things being made by hand but instead made using machines in larger-scale factories.
- 15. the doctrine that actions are right if they are useful or for the benefit of a majority.
- 16. a policy or attitude of letting things take their own course, without interfering.

Down

- 1. the division or consolidation of communal fields, meadows, pastures, and other arable lands in western Europe into the carefully delineated and individually owned and managed farm plots of modern times.

- 2. The system of growing a different crop in a field each year to preserve the fertility of the land
- 3. the development of industries in a country or region on a wide scale.
- 4. A building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or assembled chiefly by machine.
- 6. a person who organizes and operates a business or businesses, taking on greater than normal financial risks in order to do so.
- 9. an economic and political system in which a country's trade and industry are controlled by private owners for profit, rather than by the state.
- 14. a refusal to work organized by a body of employees as a form of protest, typically in an attempt to gain a concession or concessions from their employer.