Industrial Revolution

Across

- 1. This union of people were able to reach written agreements on wages, hours, and working conditions
- 3. The stockholders gave this company a contract to lay track at two to three times the actual cost and pocketed the profits
- 5. Injected air into molten iron to remove the carbon and other impurities
- 7. A banker who made a tycoon by taking over and merging other people's businesses
- 11. Complete control over an industry's production, wages, and prices
- 20. Worked as a cigar maker and joined a local union and eventually became president of the American Federation of Labor
- 21. Successfully used a steam engine to drill for oil near Tutusville, Pennsylvania
- 22. Invented the Telephone
- 23. Railroads that extended Westward

- 24. A process that joins together companies producing similar products
- 25. Adapted the ideas of the British naturalist, Charles Darwin, and applied them to human society

Down

- 2. Invented the Typewriter in 1867
- 4. Union officials representing the workers negotiate with management
- 6. The Supreme court upheld the Granger laws by vote of seven to two, the states win the right to regulate railroads for the benefit of farmers and consumers
- 8. A key figure in the expansion of railroads
- 9. A person whom formed "Trusts"
- 10. Made it illegal to form a trust that interfered with free trade between states or with other countries

- 12. Worked to perfect the incandescent light bulb
- 13. This act reestablished the right of federal government to supervise railroad activities and set up a five member Interstate Commerce Commission
- 14. Invented the sleeping railroad-car
- 15. An African American who was an important key in improving the light bulb
- 16. Supplies like coal fields and iron mines were bought out in order to control the raw materials and transportation systems
- 17. Was the private secretary to the superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad
- 18. French for "To let do"
- 19. Competing companies put control of their businesses under a single group of trustees