

Industry & Immigration

Across

2. A small cassette recorder used to record speech for transcription at a later time.

8. Apartments built in city slums to house large numbers of immigrants.

12. A place where different peoples, styles, theories, etc. are mixed together.

13. A park in New York largely designed by Fredrick Law Olmstead.

14. One of the most famous inventors of all time, contributing inventions such as the light bulb, the phonograph, the Dictaphone, and the motion picture camera.

15. The theory that individuals, groups, and peoples are subject to the same Darwinian laws of natural selection as plants and animals.

16. An early sound-reproducing machine that used cylinders to record as well as reproduce sound.

Down

1. Negotiation of wages and other conditions of employment by an organized body of employees.

3. A park in Chicago that runs along Lake Michigan.

4. The set of ideas and values that develop from a common exposure to the same media, news sources, music, and art.

5. A system for transmitting voices over a distance using wire or radio, by converting acoustic vibrations to electrical signals.

6. A system for transmitting messages from a distance along a wire.

7. The policy of protecting the interests of native-born or established inhabitants against those of immigrants.

9. A very tall building of many stories, usually with a steel frame.

10. A government license conferring the right to exclude others from making, using, or selling an invention.

11. An outlying district of a city, usually a residential one.