

Name: _____

Date: _____

Infection Control

Across

2. what is the single most effective way to prevent the spread of infections

5. Replace a hard red sharps container when it becomes _____ full

8. Gloves, Mask and Eye protection are forms of _____

9. patients, visitors, physicians and _____ are responsible for preventing nosocomial infections

10. Hepatitis, MRSA, HIV and C diff are examples of _____ Transmission

11. Dirty Linen should never be placed in _____ bags

12. what type of precautions are used for all patients as potentially infectious

Down

1. Nosocomial Infection is another name for _____ Infections

3. consist of measures taken to prevent nosocomial infections

4. Become a patient advocate for the _____ of nosocomial (healthcare associated) infections and a promoter of patient safety

6. Isolation Precautions are Contact, _____ and Airborne

7. what is the purposeful prevention of the spread of infection