

Infection Control

Across

- 5. _____ prevention keeps existing problems from worsening?
- 6. MRSA, VRE, and CRE are all examples of what?
- 7. The pathogen against which alcohol hand sanitizer is ineffective
- 9. _____ prevention detects and treats problems in early stages?
- 13. Type of isolation required for patients that have symptoms concerning for Tuberculosis

- 14. When hands are visibly dirty, wash hands with soap and water for at least _____ seconds

Down

- 1. This level of precaution relates to all aspects of resident care
- 2. _____ prevention promotes health and protects against threats?
- 3. Most health-care-associated infections are transmitted to patients by

- 4. A patient/ resident with influenza would require _____ precautions
- 8. Which type of isolation precautions would be appropriate for a resident with MRSA
- 10. Never _____ needles after use
- 11. PPE to remove first
- 12. What is a common bacteria that is antibiotic resistant?