

Infection Control

Across

- 1. a natural resistance
- 4. best way to avoid spreading infection
- 6. small single cell organisms
- 11. appreciation of personal protection equipment
- 12. complex single cell organisms
- 13. Australia's regulatory authority for therapeutic goods
- 16. occurs with dust that contains spores or by droplet

17. an example of a possibly infectious spill in massage clinic

18. organisms that contains genetic materia

19. when an infected person coughs, sneezes, speaks, or sings

Down

2. too small to be seen by the naked eye

3. most direct way to break the cycle is prevention

5. records help to understand the history of hazard, risk and effectiveness of preventative controls

7. occurs following an injection of prepared antibodies

8. host is touched by infected person transmitting pathogens directly

9. The name of the standard that relates to washing linen

10. a type of waste that is occasionally that relates of bacteria

14. a link in the chain model of infection that relates to bacteria

15. decompose plants and animals to fill the soil with nutrients