

Influences on Prenatal Development

Across

1. If a woman gains too much weight during pregnancy they are at risk for _____
8. A woman in their forties is more likely to have a child with _____
9. A chronic bacterial disease that can cause damage to the central nervous system, teeth, and bones of a fetus.
10. What environmental hazard causes retarded growth, leukemia, and cognitive delays.
11. _____ is the main cause of child development delays

Down

2. An infection that is transmitted through cat feces and birds that can cause brain damage, seizures and blindness
3. When a woman is under _____ she is more likely to smoke, drink, not exercise or eat well.
4. What drug causes deficits in intelligence, attention, and motor skills.
5. When there is a lack of folic acid consumed babies are at a risk for _____
6. Women who reported high anxiety during pregnancy give birth _____ more often.
7. Canadians are often exposed to toxins through _____, water and air