

Name: _____

Information Text Terms Matching

- |  |                                 |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1. Main reason the author is writing   | A. loaded language              |
| 2. unique way an author writes   | B. graphics and text features   |
| 3. the art of speaking or writing persuasively                                     | C. tone                         |
| 4. the way the author tries to influence the reader opinion                        | D. author's purpose             |
| 5. what the text is mainly about   | E. claim                        |
| 6. text that supports an inference, opinion, claim, or analysis                    | F. central idea                 |
| 7. a persuasive technique that involves using words that will appeal to the reader | G. persuasive techniques        |
| 8. the pattern an author uses to convey the meaning                                | H. summary                      |
| 9. the perspective the story is told   | I. fallacious reasoning         |
| 10. the author's opinion that is supported by evidence                             | J. inference                    |
| 11. an educated guess or assumption  | K. textual evidence and details |
| 12. the most important ideas of the text stated in a couple of sentences           | L. argument                     |
| 13. used to make information an easy-to-understand format                          | M. point of view                |
| 14. conveys a positive or negative meaning, emotion, or attitude                   | N. structure                    |
| 15. the manner in which a story/poem is told                                       | O. rhetoric                     |
| 16. author's position on a problem or issue  | P. connections                  |
| 17. an error in reasoning  | Q. style                        |