

Name: _____

Date: _____

Informational Books

Across

3. Combine elements of both nonfiction and fiction through a ribbon of fiction or poetry
4. Picture book that is brief and only addresses one or two concepts
10. Sciences that deal with living organisms and the laws and phenomena that relate to any organism
11. Writing that explores
12. Sciences that deal primarily with non-living materials

Down

1. Deals with fields that are cultural or artistic
2. Give verifiable information or explain some aspects of the biological, social, or physical world
5. Organized around directions for activities such as crafts, recipes, or experiments.
6. Equal balance between text and illustrations. Excellent information-bearing photographs

7. Books such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, and atlases
8. Sciences that deal with the institutions and functioning of society and the interpersonal relationship go individuals within a society
9. Sciences that deal with the practical applications of pure science devised by people