

Name: _____

Date: _____

Insurance Crossword

Across

1. An amount that must be paid by a policyholder on a loss before the insurance company pays the balance
4. Costs resulting from illness or accident
7. Another of the three kinds of risks that people seek protection against
9. Something you should do with costs and coverages before you buy any type of insurance
10. Various types of damages for which you purchase home insurance
12. What people try to protect themselves against with insurance

13. Person to whom insurance death benefits are paid

14. Life insurance bought for a specified period of time
15. A major, unexpected loss
17. The third of the three kinds of risks that people seek protection against

18. Another name for cash-value insurance

19. The price of an insurance policy

Down

2. A type of insurance that pays benefits to an individual who is out of work because of illness or injury

3. A document that describes the terms of insurance coverage

5. A feature of major medical coverage that requires policyholders to share in the expenses

6. An alternative to traditional health insurance that covers preventative healthcare

8. Regarding life insurance, the amount of money that is paid in the event of the insured's death

11. Insurance plans that usually provide more coverage and are less expensive than individual plans

16. One of the three kinds of risks that people seek protection against