

Name: _____

Date: _____

Integumentary

Across

1. Several hair follicles infection with furuncle
5. Cancerous tumor of the basal cell layer of the epidermis
8. Thick layer of dead tissue
13. Superficial; Redness, itching and crusting
14. Absence/Loss of hair
15. German measles
17. Lice
21. Warts
24. Caused by an egg laying mite that burrows through the skin and causes redness and intense itching.
25. Sunshine vitamin
26. Abnormal paleness to skin
27. Outermost layer of skin
28. Severe itching
30. Infected nail bed
35. Pinpoint purple or red spots

Down

2. tissue necrosis due to deficient blood supply
3. Blemish, birthmark or mole
4. Abnormal amount of pigmentation
6. A collection of pus in the skin
7. Infection producing or containing pus
9. Excessive body hair growth
10. Sac under skin filled with sebum or oil from the sebaceous gland
11. structural protein found in the skin and connective tissue
36. Chicken pox
37. Infection of skin fold around a nail
38. Silver scales patches with circular borders
39. Tough, colorless protein found in skin, hair, nails
40. General term for wound, injury and abnormality

Across

12. Dangerous type of skin cancer caused by uncontrolled growth of melanocytes
16. A diffuse, acute infection and inflammation of connective tissue found in the skin
18. Containing pus
19. Bacterial infection of hair follicle
20. Raised and thickened hypertrophy scar after injury or surgery
22. Redness or flushing skin
23. Highly infectious bacteria infection of the skin with pustules that rupture and become crusted over
29. Hives
31. Area of the hair above the skin
32. Disappearance of pigment in skin
33. yellow fibers that make connective tissue flexible
34. Yellow, brown, or black pigment found in the skin and hair