

Name: _____

Date: _____

Integumentary System

Across

2. A chronic, noncontagious skin disease with periods of exacerbations and remissions. (s/s-thick red areas covered with white or silver scales)

8. Cancer of the basal cells in the epidermis of the skin.

9. Symptoms of this disease are papules, pustules, and blackheads.

10. A highly contagious skin infection (mostly infects infants and children)

11. An inflammation of the skin.

Down

1. Affects the thin cells of the epithelium but can spread fast to other areas of the body.

3. A contagious fungal infection that usually affects the feet.

4. Develops in the melanocytes of the epidermis and is the most dangerous type of skin cancer.

5. Warts

6. A noncontagious, inflammatory dermatitis.

7. A highly contagious fungal infection of the skin or scalp. Forms a flat or raised circular area.