

Name: _____

Date: _____

International Patient Safety Goals

Across

7. Before administer high alert medication, 2 nurses should do

9. Body`s first line of defense to against infection is

10. When reporting critical test results, what type of clear communication should be use?

Down

1. The separation of infected person from others

2. Telephone order need to be sign within..... hours

3. Verbal order need to be sign within

4. PPE to remove first

5. A patient is wandering in the hospital alone with a yellow bracelet, which indicate that patient is at risk for

6. never needles after use.

8. is used to facilitate prompt and appropriate communication