

International Trade and Finance

Across

3. The economic policy of restricting quotas, and a variety of other government regulations

4. The amount by which the value of a countries exports exceeds the cost of its imports

6. bring (goods or services) into a country form abroad for sale

7. Send (goods or services) to another country for sale

10. The difference in total value between payments into and out of a country over a period

12. A government-imposed trade restriction that limits the number, or monetary value, of goods that can be imported or exported during a particular time period

14. Ability of an individual or group to carry out a particular economic activity more efficiently than another individual or group

15. Are used to restrict trade, as they increase the price of imported goods and services, making them more expensive to consumers

16. The rate at which one currency will be exchanged for another

17. A monetary system that allows the exchange rate to be determined by supply and demand

19. The exchange of capital goods, and services across international borders/ territories

Down

1. A country's exchange rate regime under which the government or central banks ties the official exchange rate to another countries currency or to the price of gold

2. The ability of an individual/ group to carry out a particular economic activity more efficiently than another activity

5. An association of European nations formed in 1993 for the purpose of achieving political and economic intergration

8. A multilateral agreement regulating international trade

9. An official ban or trade or other commercial activity without a particular economic activity more efficiently than another activity

11. The amount by which the value of a countries exports exceeds the cost of its imprints

13. The only global international organization dealing with the rules of trade between nations

18. an agreement among the United States, Canada, and Mexico designed to remove tariff barriers between the three countries