

Introduction to Georgia History

1. a rock composed of silica, and the american Indians used then to make weapons. A. Mercantilism
2. based on if they had ideological and religious beliefs, if they were wealthy, or had military power B. Okefenokee Swamp
3. made up of relative small percentage of chiefdom populations and had higher social standing than commoners. C. chert
4. a practice of gardening, Indians used to practice it. D. Maize
5. it was the stable plant that they had to grow and used it at food E. Mississippian Indians
6. they were the people in the community and they were divided into the elites and the commoners. F. Mississippian Commoners
7. they would use the swamp to put missionaries in it G. Mississippian Elites
8. they used it to build their houses, it was a tradition for them to use. H. Wattle and Daub
9. most of the people would trade their food and good to other people. I. Spanish Missions
10. they would try and change the Indians to be christian. J. Hernando De Soto
11. to change the Indians to be christian. K. Horticulture
12. he was for the Spanish missions. L. Barrier Islands