

Introduction to Psychology and Counseling

Across

- 3. Treating others differently in circumstances where their rights or treatment should be equal
- 4. Negative attitude towards others based on gender, religion, race, or membership to a particular group
- 7. A belief or set of beliefs
- 9. Medical doctor specializing in the diagnosis and treatment of mental disorders

10. "Study of the mind"

- 11. Study of the origins and consequences of mental processes
- 12. When an individual's performance improves because of the presence of others

Down

- 1. Looking to outside images in order to evaluate your own opinions and abilities

2. Attraction between people that allows the formation of friendships and relationships

- 5. Feelings of pity and sorrow for someone else's misfortune
- 6. Ability to understand and share the feelings of another
- 8. Learned tendency to respond to people/ objects, or institutions in a positive or negative way