

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introduction to Science

Across

3. One day coal, oil and natural gas will run out, we would describe them as being non----- resources

11. When two organisms produce offspring or children.

12. The branch of science that studies matter and reactions.

13. An animal that doesn't have a backbone and is good for the soil in the garden.

14. The offspring or children of snakes and birds grow in these.

15. The place where an organism (bird) lives.

17. The famous scientist who explained the theory of evolution.

18. When glass is melted down and made into a new product.

Down

1. Animals that eat meat are called this.

2. A herbivore only eats these.

4. The sun provides this for plants to photosynthesise.

5. Animals with a backbone are called this.

6. The helpful microorganism that makes bread rise.

7. These cause diseases like sore throats and so small that they have to be viewed with a microscope.

8. Science equipment used to measure temperature

9. The study of living things

10. The branch of science that studies matter, energy, electricity, forces and magnetism.

16. A human is called this when they are aged 18 or over.