

Invertebrates

Across

- 2. Eat mollusks
- 8. Is the most widespread species in the world
- 9. The flexible hollow appendages that help an echinoderm move and collect food
- 12. An animal without a backbone
- 15. Use their tube feet for
- 16. Can force their

- 17. Pair of antennae
- 18. Pairs of legs
- 19. Have a muscular
- 20. Used to scrape off of surfaces

Down

- 1. Have skin like
- 3. Is a subspecies of the worlds hornets
- 4. Is large marine cephalopod belonging to the enteroctopus

- 5. An extremely large tarantula found in some rainforests
- 6. Live in
- 7. Is a species of very large
- 10. Many more
- 11. Can protect many invertebrates
- 13. If attacked by a predator they can just detach an
- 14. Have 5

Word Bank

- |                   |                       |                 |                            |
|-------------------|-----------------------|-----------------|----------------------------|
| Arm               | Teeth like            | Many            | Old World Barn Sallow Tail |
| Stomck out        | Moist environments    | One             | movement                   |
| foot              | Gaint Pacific Octopus | Pacific geoduck | Shells                     |
| Goliath Birdeater | Small Teeth           | Tube feet       | leather                    |
| Invertebrate      | Asian Giant Hornet    | Species         | Carbs                      |